

All Saints of North America Orthodox Church

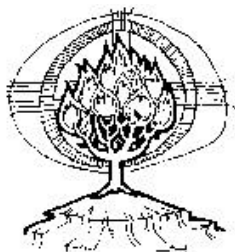

All Saints of North America Orthodox Church is the first English language Orthodox parish in the Hamilton area, with parish members from around the Golden Horseshoe (Toronto to Niagara).

The mission was started in 2000 with a couple of individuals gathering for prayer and study in a private home, and has grown into a small but thriving Orthodox community, with regular services, classes, the Campus Fellowship, and the Desert Wisdom Bookroom.

All Saints of North America has maintained a zeal to share traditional Orthodoxy with Canadians, while endeavouring to always remember that the purpose of Christ's Church is theosis, the work of transforming each person into the likeness of God. The work of the interior life - to acquire an "Orthodoxy of the heart" as one Church Father calls it - remains forever our work.

The Orthodox Spirituality Series is part of this kind of Orthodox life: sharing the fullness of Truth with others who seek it, while each person works out the salvation of his soul.

We pray that the Orthodox Spirituality Series will draw you closer to Christ, and that it will rekindle in you a burning love for Him that permeates every corner of your life.

Purpose of the Series

The aim of the Series is to bring timeless Christian Truth to Canadians, in the hope of equipping the faithful to live steadfastly, and to face with faith and courage the challenge of contemporary life.

This year, the Series will focus on the saints of North America, told through the fascinating stories of one of their greatest spiritual witnesses and chroniclers, Father Michael Oleksa of Alaska.

Directions

Take the 403 from Toronto or QEW to Red Hill Expressway from Niagara; travel up the Niagara escarpment to the Lincoln Alexander Parkway. Exit the Parkway at Upper Wentworth, turning north. Travel past Limeridge Mall down to Concession Street. Turn right on Concession. St. Stephen's parish hall is five blocks along on the left, behind the church.

Parking

Street parking is available around the hall. Please note posted restrictions.

Fr Michael Oleksa

OrthodoxChurchinAlaska

Father Michael Oleksa was born in Allentown, Pennsylvania. He came to Alaska in 1970 from St. Vladimir's Seminary in New York at the invitation of the Alutiiq village of Old Harbor on Kodiak Island. Over the next three decades he served as priest in over a dozen Alaska Native villages. In 1988 he completed his doctoral degree at the Orthodox Theological Faculty in Presov, Slovakia, with an emphasis in Native Alaskan History during the Alaska Russian period (1741-1867).

Father Michael has served as a university professor, a consultant on intercultural relations and communications, and authoring several books on Alaska Native cultures and history, with a special emphasis on the lives and teachings of the holy saints of North America's Orthodox heartland of Alaska. His four-part PBS television series, Communicating Across Cultures, has been widely acclaimed. He currently resides in Anchorage with his Yup'ik wife, Xenia, his daughter Anastasia and one of his three grandsons.
