

The Great Doxology

(During the singing of the Great Doxology, the priest goes around the Shroud three times, censing it from the four sides.)

Glory to the Father... now and ever... A-men. Holy Immortal have mer-cy on us.

In procession around the church, we sing:

Ho - - - ly God, Ho - ly Might - y, Ho - ly
 Im - mor - - tal have mer - cy on us.

As the processional Trisagion is sung, the priest takes the Book of the Gospels, and four laymen take the Winding-Sheet and hold it above his head. They go in procession around the outside of the church, while the people continue to sing the Trisagion. The Cross with the processional candles leads the procession, followed by the choir, the deacon (or server) with the incense, then the Winding-Sheet, and all the members of the congregation holding lighted candles. When the procession returns to the interior of the church, they carry the Winding-Sheet to the Holy Doors, and the priest exclaims:

Wisdom! Let us attend!

As the choir sings the troparion (The Noble Joseph, see next page) the Shroud is returned to its place in the center of the church, the Book of the Gospels on it, and the priest censens around it once.
